CLAIM VILLA IS PLOTTING INTERVE Bandit Leader's Capture Is Doubted MIRNERS RODRIGUEZ U. S. HELPLESS, SAYS FERC

Report Says He Was Captured By Americans and Mexicans at Madera.

MAY BE RUSE TO PREVENT A PANIC

& Communication with Madera Has Been Cut Off, Making News Difficult.

GRAVE doubt is east upon the re-port of the capture of Rodrigues, the bandit leader, at Madera; same local observers of the situation de confident that the story is started Carrancistas in the effort to allay citement, and that it is not true. Attention is called to the fact that communication with Madera has an cut off for some time, and it is unidered strange that the wires are firmed at noon, but persistent in well advised circles, declared that Rodrigues had played a trick and had started for the big mining district of Parral, literally infested with rich COMPINISION BILL CRUMI Parral, literally infested with rich mines and under operation by the Alvarado and other American interests, employing stores of Americans in the management and operation of plants.

The state department through collector Zach L Cobb here was appealed to for assistance in urging the Carriaga government to ship reinforcements to Marquez and his fightins, men, calling for help as their numbers were small. Mexican consultant andres G. Garcia here was appealed to by Mr. Cobb, and promise of efforts to sit up something of a reinforcement nature gut of the military authorities was promised.

The wire over which came the measure reporting the capture of Redult, gues, was said to have been grounded previously at Pearson, instead of bringing and telegraphic communication was resumed at the first opportunity.
